The Step dame made her Cinders sift
Sure never was her fellow
And from this dirty work she got
The name of Cinderella
It happen'd once upon A time
The Kings Son gave A Ball
And he the Lady's of the town invited one and All
In Feathers and in Rich Array
To Court the Sisters went
While Cinderella sat and Cry'd
And did her fate Lament
Her Godmother A Fairy was
Of Cinderella fond
And said you to the Ball shall go
Bring here my dear that wand
A Coach she from A Pompion made
A Coachman from A Rat
Four Mice to four fine Horses changd
Most Beautiful and Fat
From Lizards she six Footmen made
And altering of her Drefs
To return before the clock struck twelve
She kindly did her Drefs
After the Midnight hour is struck
Says she my Power is gone
Your finery will change to Rags
As sure as you are Born
But as she Danced the clock struck twelve
No finery could she find
And as she out with Terror Flew
One Slipper Left Behind.
The Prince he promised he would wed Whoe'er that shoe should fit But no one in his Court their foot Could in the Slipper get

The Page unto the Sisters went As they were at the Ball Alone twould Cinderella fit Which much Surprised them all

The prince fulfilled his word next Unto her he was Wed And she forgave her Sisters Pri And Happily they Lived
